GIS PROJECT: Eighth grade students were selected by GIS for developing the best maps in the country. S.S. teacher Lyn Malone and a group of her students traveled to California to present at the GIS Conference.

EXEMPLARY HOST SITE: Barrington Middle School was host to visitors from more than 300 schools from around the world who were interested in promising middle level practices.

NELMS PRESIDENT/ BOARD CHAIR: Principal Wheeler was elected President/ Board Chair of the New England League of Middle Schools.