Parents and guardians are any school's strongest allies for helping students achieve and thrive to their fullest potential. Robust two-way communication with students' families cultivates a relationship between the home and the school that puts the families squarely on the school's team when working with students. (Only students in 4th grade and above take the SALT survey.)

Community support

What Teachers Say
Percent of teachers who agree or strongly agree:

- They meet with individual parents to solve problems and provide assistance.
- Teachers on their team or grade level maintain positive relationships with students' parents.
- Two-way communication between home and school is essential to effective education.

What Parents Say
Percent of parents who report that the school does well:

- That the community supports this school.
- The extent to which parents and the community are supportive of the school and its program.
- They are home unsupervised 3 or more hours a day, 3 or more days a week.

Engaging Families and Community

Information Works! School Year 2004-2005
www.infoworks.ride.uri.edu