Safe and Supportive Schools: Connectedness

Social and Emotional Connectedness of the School Community

In a school community, both the adults and children can perform at their best only when they communicate well and feel connected to one another. Everyone needs to feel safe, nurtured, and supported - or teaching and learning are compromised. (Only students in 4th grade and above take the SALT survey.)

Connectedness among professional colleagues, teachers, and administrators

- [Bar chart showing teacher responses on various aspects of work satisfaction and team spirit.]

Connectedness between students and teachers

- [Bar chart showing student and teacher responses on interactions and personal support.]

Connectedness throughout the school community as a whole

- [Bar chart showing parent, student, and teacher responses on school achievements and relationships.]

Student Responses

- Teachers take a personal interest in students.
- Get individual help and advising from teachers.
- Teachers respond that they often:

Teacher Responses

- Teachers respond that they agree or strongly agree that:

Advisory Programs

- Building-principal Responses
- Teacher Responses

Parent Responses

- Percent who agree or strongly agree that:

Student Responses

- Percent who report that:

Teacher Responses

- Percent who agree or strongly agree that: