The single most important aspect of a child’s education is having a good teacher. And teachers overwhelmingly cite student success as their principal motivator. To be maximally effective, teachers need to feel sure that their professional judgment is always vital to school improvement, to school-wide decision-making, and to anything that affects the welfare of their students.

SALT Survey findings and barriers to reform

Teacher Participation Rates

What Teachers Say

Teacher efficacy

What Teachers Say

Additional teacher-quality indicators

Information Works! School Year 2004-2005