In a school community, both the adults and children can perform at their best only when they communicate well and feel connected to one another. Everyone needs to feel safe, nurtured, and supported - or teaching and learning are compromised. Data on this report comes from the annual SALT Survey.

Social and Emotional Connectedness of the School Community

Teacher Responses
Percent who report they agree or strongly agree that:

- 0% to 100% for various statements about job satisfaction, decision-making, and respect among colleagues.

Student Responses
Percent who report that they often:

- 0% to 100% for various statements about personal interest in students and getting individual help.

Teacher Responses
Percent who report they are satisfied or very satisfied with:

- 0% to 100% for various statements about job satisfaction, decision-making, and respect among colleagues.

Student Responses
Percent who report that:

- 0% to 100% for various statements about belonging and conflict reduction.

Parent Responses
Percent who report that:

- 0% to 100% for various statements about parent involvement and school improvement.

Teacher Responses
Percent who report that:

- 0% to 100% for various statements about school culture and student behavior.