Engaging Families and Community

Parent Participation Rates

The percentage of students in the school whose parents responded to the SALT Survey.

What Teachers Say
Percent of teachers who agree or strongly agree:

Parental involvement in school governance is essential to effective education.

What Parents Say
Percent of parents who report that the school does well:

Contacts me if my child does something well or improves
Contacts me if my child is having a problem
Responds to my concerns and requests within a reasonable time
Has a parent-teacher conference with me
Asks me to volunteer at the school

Teacher practices and attitudes

Percent who report that at least weekly:

They meet with individual parents to solve problems and provide assistance.

Teachers on their team or grade level maintain positive relationships with students’ parents.

Two-way communication between home and school is essential to effective education.

They use parents as school resources or volunteers.

Working with parents

Percent who report that at least monthly:

Too few responses to report
Inadequate data submitted

Parent Participation Rates

The percentage of students in the school whose parents responded to the SALT Survey.

What Teachers Say
Percent who agree or strongly agree:

This school
R.I. high schools

* Too few responses to report
? Inadequate data submitted

What Parents Say
Percent who agree or strongly agree:

Parents
Teachers
Students

That the community supports this school.
The extent to which parents and the community are supportive of the school and its program.
They are home unsupervised 3 or more hours a day, 3 or more days a week.

Parents and guardians are any school’s strongest allies for helping students achieve and thrive to their fullest potential. Robust two-way communication with students’ families cultivates a relationship between the home and the school that puts the families squarely on the school’s team when working with students.

Parents and guardians are any school’s strongest allies for helping students achieve and thrive to their fullest potential. Robust two-way communication with students’ families cultivates a relationship between the home and the school that puts the families squarely on the school’s team when working with students.