Career-preparation programs, courses, and activities are designed to ensure that all students are considering their own futures, are exposed to career and work options, and have the academic, technical, and employability skills to be successful in higher education and the workplace.

Programs and Participants

Career Preparation programs include: participant types, participation rates, and demographic information.

SALT Survey Findings: Teacher Responses

Survey results indicating teacher participation and experiences.

SALT Survey Findings: Student Responses

Survey results indicating student participation and experiences.

Program Types

Program Participants

Participation of all students in Career-Preparation Education

This school
The state
Missing data indicates no Career Preparation participants.