Engaging Families and Community

Parents and guardians are any school’s strongest allies for helping students achieve and thrive to their fullest potential. Robust two-way communication with students’ families cultivates a relationship between the home and the school that puts the families squarely on the school’s team when working with students.

Parent Participation Rates

The percentage of students in the school whose parents responded to the SALT Survey.

What Teachers Say

- Parental involvement in school governance is essential to effective education.

What Students Say

- They are home unsupervised 3 or more hours a day, 3 or more days a week.

What Parents Say

- They meet with individual parents to solve problems and provide assistance.

What Teachers Say

- Teachers on their team or grade level maintain positive relationships with students’ parents.

What Teachers Say

- Two-way communication between home and school is essential to effective education.

Teacher practices and attitudes

- They use parents as school resources or volunteers.

Percent of teachers who agree or strongly agree:

- That the community supports this school.

Percent who report that:

- The extent to which parents and the community are supportive of the school and its program.

Parent Participation Rates

- This school
- R.I. elementary schools

Parents

- Percent who agree or strongly agree:

Teachers

- Percent who say they are satisfied or very satisfied with:

Students

- Percent who report that:

Too few responses to report
? Inadequate data submitted

Too few responses to report
? Inadequate data submitted

Too few responses to report
? Inadequate data submitted

Too few responses to report
? Inadequate data submitted

* Inadequate data submitted