Social and Emotional Connectedness of the School Community

In a school community, both the adults and children can perform at their best only when they communicate well and feel connected to one another. Everyone needs to feel safe, nurtured, and supported - or teaching and learning are compromised. Data on this report comes from the annual SALT Survey.

Connectedness among professional colleagues, teachers, and administrators

This school
R.I. elementary schools

* Too few responses to report
? Inadequate data submitted

Student Responses
Percent who report that most of the time or always:

- Teachers on my team or grade level work well together as a unit.
- I help decide how school policies ought to be changed.
- Classroom curricula and topics are integrated across subject areas.
- Staff are involved in school-improvement planning and decisions.
- There is a group spirit among the staff.

Teacher Responses
Percent who report they agree or strongly agree that:

- Teachers on my team or grade level respect each other's ideas and opinions.
- Classroom curricula and topics are integrated across subject areas.
- Staff are involved in school-improvement planning and decisions.
- There is a group spirit among the staff.

Advisory Programs

Building-principal Responses
Question not relevant at this grade level.

Teacher Responses
Question not relevant at this grade level.

Percent reporting that their school has a 'teacher-led' advisory program

Percent of teachers who report they serve as an advisor in the school's advisory program

Parent Responses
Percent who agree or strongly agree that:

- The school views parents as important partners.
- Including parents on school committees such as curriculum, budget and school improvement.
- They have a sense (feeling) of belonging in this school.
- Students in this school have trouble getting along with each other.
- It is essential for schools to provide instruction on conflict or violence reduction.

Student Responses
Percent who report that most of the time or always:

- It is essential for schools to provide instruction on conflict or violence reduction.

Teacher Responses
Percent who agree or strongly agree that:

- Teachers take a personal interest in students.
- Get individual help and advising from teachers.
- Interact with children in ways that show interest and respect.
- Use positive approaches to help children behave constructively.
- Get individual help and advising from teachers.
- They have a sense (feeling) of belonging in this school.

The school views parents as important partners.