Engaging Families and Community

Community support

This school

R.I. elementary schools

Percent of parents who report that the school does well:

Contacts me if my child does something well or improves

Responds to my concerns and requests within a reasonable time

This school

R.I. elementary schools

Too few responses to report

Survey not administered at this grade level.

What Teachers Say

Percent who agree or strongly agree:

Parental involvement in school governance is essential to effective education.

Contacts me if my child does something well or improves

Contacts me if my child is having a problem

Responds to my concerns and requests within a reasonable time

Has a parent-teacher conference with me

Asks me to volunteer at the school

What Parents Say

Percent who report that the school does well:

The percentage of students in the school whose parents responded to the SALT Survey.

Contact us if your child is having a problem

Contribute to our parent-teacher conference

Take advantage of volunteering opportunities

Getting Involved and Volunteering

Engaging Parents and Community

Parents and guardians are any school’s strongest allies for helping students achieve and thrive to their fullest potential. Robust two-way communication with students’ families cultivates a relationship between the home and the school that puts the families squarely on the school’s team when working with students. (Only students in 4th grade and above take the SALT Survey.)