Communicating and working with parents

Parents and guardians are any school’s strongest allies for helping students achieve and thrive to their fullest potential. Robust two-way communication with students’ families cultivates a relationship between the home and the school that puts the families squarely on the school’s team when working with students.

Parent Participation Rates

The percentage of students in the school whose parents responded to the SALT Survey

Teachers

Percent who say they are satisfied or very satisfied with:

Students

Percent who report that:

Parental involvement in school governance is essential to effective education.

Contacts me if my child is having a problem

Responds to my concerns and requests within a reasonable time

Has a parent-teacher conference with me

Asks me to volunteer at the school

Two-way communication between home and school is essential to effective education.

They meet with individual parents to solve problems and provide assistance.

Teachers on their team or grade level maintain positive relationships with students’ parents.

They are home unsupervised 3 or more hours a day, 3 or more days a week.

Parents

Percent who agree or strongly agree:

That the community supports this school.

The extent to which parents and the community are supportive of the school and its program.

Engaging Families and Community

www.infoworks.ride.uri.edu

Information Works! School Year 2007-08