To improve student achievement in reading for meaning.

To improve student achievement in math problem solving.

School Goals

To improve student performance in math computations.

To improve students’ ability to write proficiently by teaching them effective organizational skills.

To decrease learning interruptions in classes.