Every classroom was equipped with at least 2 computers. School adopted a new reading series in English & Spanish for all students in grades K-5. Students helped create the school’s first Web page.

Construction was started on a new gymnasium, additional classrooms and offices.

Teachers raised over $325,000 in grant money to improve the school program. The Family Literacy Center and the Elmwood Community Center expanded their programs to reach more members of the community.