Focus School-Pocasset School became part of the East Bay Collaborative’s Focus School Program for improving student performance in mathematics.

Parents and students in each grade level 1-4 were involved in after school hands-on math and science activities.

Feinstein Program- Each grade level had specific Community Service projects. Also school-wide project to raise money for a youngster with leukemia to help with medical expenses.