To reach the “Targets” established for Article 31.

To institute a staff development plan for the 1999-2000 school year.

To continue to improve the utilization of computers in the classroom.

To improve communications between home and school.