To implement a before and after school enrichment program.

Provide parents with more information on student progress.

Establish grade level homework polices.

Become more cognizant of the district technology plan.

Increase higher level thinking skills.