To develop a three year plan to restructure our school into a true middle school.

To improve achievement on mathematics for all middle school students.

To improve achievement in language arts for all middle school students.

To improve communication between the school and the community.