To promote a positive school environment which fosters socially responsible students.

To improve writing across the curriculum.

To strengthen the school-home connection.

To provide staff development in reading and language arts. To focus on increasing student performance in mathematics.