To improve student performance in the areas of math and writing.

School goals

To provide staff development and develop professional development activities that will positively affect student performance in math and writing.

Recommendation of redistricting of the John Brown Francis school area.