NEW STANDARDS MOVEMENT: To increase student achievement, the Scott School faculty received professional development training on the standards, standards based instruction, and the use and development of rubrics.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT: The faculty received training in writing across the curriculum by John Brogan.

PROJECT STARSHINE: During science classes, grade six students polished tiles for project Starshine. The project Starshine experiment was placed on a May space shuttle mission.