SATURDAY ACADEMY: Program designed for 17 identified at-risk readers K-2. This program ran from 8-noon for 7 Saturdays this spring. One-on-one help in reading, phonetic awareness, writing and making words was provided.

PLANNING CENTER AND PLAY FAIR: Play Fair offers students leadership opportunities and a chance to promote non-competitive recess games. The planning center provides a safe place for children who need to de-escalate/practice anger management strategies.

RECOGNIZED FEINSTEIN SCHOOL: 1 of 30 schools recognized by A. S. Feinstein for its Good Deeds program. An inter-generational aspect of the Good Deeds program includes students visiting with residents of local nursing homes to sing, bring crafts and chat.
