Hugh B. Bain Middle School

In their own words

Highlights from the school

See Web for school goals.

Project RESPECT was initiated at Bain Middle School with collaboration from the high school staff and students. The purpose is to foster a climate of mutual respect and appreciation of all people.

The Bain Homework Center was successfully established. The program provided the time, space and supportive environment where students could work on homework assignments and projects.

The Bain Planning Center was initiated to provide behavioral and academic support for our general education students. The planning center will also assist students in making transitions back to school or individual classes.
