House Plan: Heterogeneously grouped ninth and tenth graders house plan students achieve academically and attend school more frequently than other non-house ninth and tenth graders.

Interdisciplinary Teaching: Initiatives by the science and business departments resulted in the creation of Phyz-Biz, an interdisciplinary physics and business program in which students learn to market ideas and products developed in the physics class.

Humanities: An expanded humanities program now involves English, social studies and art. The two year honors program is academically rigorous as well as highly elected.
