Joseph H. Gaudet School

Information Works! School Year 2001-2002

 prominently features:

- Parental Involvement: More than 50% of parents of their students regularly attend scheduled parent-teacher conferences.

- Skill Needs: The school explains how to check a child's homework and assigns homework that requires the child to talk with the parent about things learned in class.

- Parental Feelings: Percent of parents reporting that they feel this school “does well” in the following areas:
  - Parental Involvement: 65% for this school versus state averages of 65%.
  - Instruction: 65% for this school versus state averages of 65%.

- Student Participation: Percent of students reporting that they feel they can talk to a teacher or other staff member about:
  - Academic Issues: Most of the time or always.
  - Personal Problems: Most of the time or always.
  - Hurt or Bothered at School: Most of the time or always.

- Student Engagement: Percent of students who report that:
  - Instruction Variety and Innovation: Regularly attend scheduled parent-teacher conferences.
  - Contact with Students’ Families: At least “some” contact with the students’ families.

- Teacher Participation: Percent of teachers reporting that:
  - Support for Teachers: They provide regular support.
  - Student Interactions: Positive interactions take place.

- Time in School and Time Lost: This school reports 95% time in school and 4% time lost, compared to state averages of 93% time in school and 7% time lost.

- Health Assessments: 25% proficient, 75% non-proficient, compared to state averages of 80% proficient and 20% non-proficient.